A responsible co-op student and Catholic graduate respects the environment and resources wisely. This paves the way to responsible citizenship.

1. At your own placement, describe how the environment factors into your workplace.
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

2. Describe the recycling program that exists in the workplace.
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

3. Describe the measures that the company and employees take to conserve resources.
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

4. Identify two things you would change or add to improve and better the situation.
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________