Think about your current co-op placement and the type of work you do or the work that your supervisor does. Please respond the following questions regarding your future pathway.

1. Do you have a future in this job? What is your opinion about having a career in your current co-op placement?
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2. What are the pros about this kind of work?
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

3. What are the cons about this kind of work?
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

4. Describe some of the benefits of this placement with respect to thinking about labour market trends (ie. Will more or fewer workers be needed in this type of work in the future?)
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________